TELEGRAPHIC.

REGINA, December 7.

The assembly met at 3 o'clock. Ross was returned speaker without opposition.

The speech from the throne alluded to harvest, railway building and immigration; also to the report of the minister of justice recommending that the ordinance providing for the executive committee to be amended by the assembly to bring it clearly within terms of the Northwest Act. No allusions to former proceedings or to the reason for the present session.

The speaker announced the election of J. R. Insinger for Wallace.

Cayley introduced a bill to amend the marriage ordinance.

Mowat introduced the school bill.

Cayley announced that the executive committee had resigned because the ordinance under which it had been constituted had been declared ultra vires and he made a formal motion for a committee.

A message from the lieutenant-governor considering the reports from the minister of justice disallowing the streams bill of session 1892; recommending the amendment of the executive committee ordinance to their operation; the objection to the executive committee merely that it authorized the executive to advise the lieutenant-governor on all matters where the Northwest Act limits its advisory powers to matters of finance.

Edward Hanlan announces that he intends to issue a challenge shortly to row any man in America for the championship title held, at the time of his death, by the late William O'Connor. He says he will post a forfeit, and that the first man who covers it can get on a match.

About 150 families moved from Michigan into Manitoba and the Northwest during the past summer as the result of the emigration campaign carried on in that state by Capt. A. F. Holmes and M. V. McInnes, both of whom are in Ottawa on business with the interior department. Holmes says the indications are that Michigan will send between 500 and 600 families into the Northwest next spring, as excellent reports have been made by those who have already taken up land.

In a long cable despatch sent by Lord Dunraven from his country seat, Adare, in Ireland, to the newspapers of New York, he states that his challenge for the American cup has been confirmed by the Royal Yacht Squadron of England, and it should shortly arrive in New York. This is good news for yachtsmen and many of them have expressed their satisfaction. They feel sure there will be a race, and ex-commandore Kane says it will be the biggest yachting event ever seen in the world.

JAY GOULD.

Mr. Gould may be called the Napoleon of American finance. He was born in Roxbury, Delaware county, New York, and was about fifty-five years old. He was rather a small man, and usually wore a short, black, full beard. He was a quiet, taciturn man, not given to many words, nor to letting his opinion appear in his face or in his actions. Born of poor parents he had simply a plain country school education, but was anxious to become of some consequence in the world, and early turned his attention to civil engineering, in which he became quite proficient; in fact he made the first official map of Delaware county, which became the standard, and has remained such ever since. In this way he made his first two hundred dollars. He was domestic in his habits, and strongly attached to his family and his home. His city residence was on Fifth avenue, New York, and he also had an elegant country seat on the right bank of the Hudson, near Yonkers. Mr. Gould may be roughly estimated to have been worth about one hundred millions of dollars.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, DECEMBER 8, 1892.

THE LITTLE MAN AND HIS BIG SCHEME.

Regina Standard : In condonation of his conduct respecting the school question, Mr. Cayley has inaugurated an immigration scheme, which calculated to give his own constituency an undue advantage. The mayor of Calgary has been appointed to take charge of an immigration bureau in Toronto and to have control of all Northwest agents who go east in the interests of immigration. They must take their instructions from him and report themselves regularly.

Mr. Fitzgerald, another Calgary man, who is an agent of the C. P. R. and other land companies, has been made a paid agent of the Northwest government, working the Western States, and Mr. Reilly, of Calgary, is to be the Territorial commissioner to the World's Fair. Now these may be all good and suitable immigration agents. We believe they are. But we do not believe that Calgary possesses any monopoly of such men. Moreover, it is well known that Calgary sought special advantage against Edmonton at the hands of the Dominion immigration agent, and kicked vigorously because a faithful official refused to lend himself to that purpose. The aforementioned trio were numbered with the kickers, and it is only fair to assume that they still possess a not unselfish prejudice in favor of the locality in which they are personally interested. Calgary is the Canaan that they love, for it is there their possessions lie. Their praises of the Edmonton country are doubtlessly well merited, but it does not speak well for the people who reside there that Mr. Cayley could find no one in that large district capable of taking one of the three important positions which he has so reluctantly (?) bestowed upon constituents of his own. The same opprobrium attaches to Prince Albert for if there were a resident of that burgh capable of filling one of the positions, surely Mr. McKay, the representative of the town, the respected and oft consulted colleague of Mr. Cayley would have discovered him, and thereby relieve Mr. Cayley from the suspicion of having acted with partiality in Calgary's favor. Did Mr. McKay make the effort? Was he consulted and did he approve all these appointments? Here is an opportunity for another no-confidence resolution. Here is a real grievance. Let history repeat itself! Moved by Mr. Betts and seconded by Mr. Clinkskill: "That the conduct of Captain Cayley, Major Mowat and Lieutenant McKay towards the district of Saskatchewan and in other respects is such as to destroy, etc., etc."

But if Edmonton has been discredited and Prince Albert humiliated, Regina has been betrayed into the hands of her bitterest enemy and most jealous rival. About a year ago the Calgary Herald, voicing the sentiment of the people of that place, came out boldly, and in an article headed "No use for Regina," advocated the removal of the seat of government. And now Regina's beautiful representative, without a word of protest, allows and even sanctions and defends appointments, which give Calgary the fullest control of the next year's immigration.

Mr. Mowat says that one of the conditions attached to the appointment of Mr. Lucas is that he will act impartially towards all sections of the country. If this be so, he should be immediately recalled and discharged, for he has already violated the most important stipulation of his agreement. The different newspaper interviews with him show conclusively that he has done so. We scan them in vain for any mention of Assiniboia, Saskatchewan or South Alberta. True he writes a few lines qualifying his statements to the Free Press, but it is not at all probable that disinterested reporters misunderstood or misrepresented him. That there

A REPLY TO AN Important Question.

Which is the best and cheapest Dry Goods Store in Town? is the question now frequently asked by the Settlers, who have recently arrived in this district. In answer to this important question, I would respectfully but emphatically reply, the

MANCHESTER HOUSE.

Dealing as I do almost exclusively in Dry Goods, I have always on hand a larger and better assorted stock than any house in Town. Prices too are cut so fine, that it is frequently remarked by those who seek quotations "Why you are selling as cheap as they do down east, and in fact in some cases cheaper."

Many of the lines have been personally selected in the best English Markets. To all desirous of inspecting and pricing the goods a cordial welcome will be given, and I am confident that my values will satisfy the keenest buyer.

Ladies' Department.

Space prevents enlarging on this head, but I would simply say, that Ladies will find here, nearly every thing they could wish in the shape of Dress Goods, Mantle Cloths, Mantles, Fur Coats and Caps, Warm Underwear, Corsets, Fancy Flannels, Woollen Hoods and Shawls, Hosiery, Millinery, Overshoes and Moccasins, &c., &c.

Men's and Boys Department.

In Ready Made Clothing, Fur and Cloth Overcoats, Woollen Underwear, Shirts, Fur Caps, Mitts, Gloves, Overshoes, Moccasins and Gum Boots, &c., the stock is large and all that could be desired.

House Furnishings, &c.. &c.

Parties furnishing will do well to inspect the large assortment in this line now displayed, comprising Carpets, Rugs, Floor Cloths, Blankets, Quilts, Comforters, Towels, Sheetings, Napkins, Curtains, Window Blinds, Curtain Poles, &c., &c.

Fancy Goods, Xmas Cards, Etc., Etc.

may be no misunderstanding is to the authority and power vested in this Mr. Lucas we quote his own words as reported in the Leader of the 24th ult.

"Being asked to explain the steps leading to his appointment, Mr. Lucas said: "At the time the estimates were published provision was made for pushing forward the work of immigration. One of the first steps taken was to see that a capable and practical man should be provided to oversee the work in the interest of the Territories. The central idea was that there should be a director over the emigration delegates sent down on C. P. R. transportation at the request of the legislative assembly; and that the delegates should be placed under his control for this purpose.

Exactly! Mr. Lucas will have about four-score delegates talking up Northwest and furnishing him with lists of probable emigrants. He will do the rest of it. He will see them and their effects carefully booked and ticketed through to Calgary, while Regina, Moosomin, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert and other fertile but less favored districts will get the go-by.

Verily, the "little man"—Mr. Cayley—is a big schemer, and his immigration policy a big scheme. but Regina pays dearly the penalty of her folly, in electing a man whose only qualification was his ambition to "get there," and who, having got there, proves an utter disappointment.

The snow plow was at work recently at Golden.

GENERAL NEWS.

It has been learned that Sir Donald A. Smith will rebuilt on the site of his old residence at Silver Heights. On the ashes of the recently demolished structure will be erected a handsome dwelling costing several thousand dollars.

The United Press says: It is semi-officially announced that Sir John Thompson will not interfere with the decision of the English privy council abolishing state aid to Catholic separate schools in Manitoba. It is also announced that the new premier will adhere strongly to the high protective policy of the late Sir John A. Macdonald, and will make a vigorous effort to work up trade with Edgland and effect a reciprocity treaty with the United States if it is possible to do so on terms favorable to Canada.

Small-pox is extending its ravages throughout England. In general it is moving slowly, though in some places it has spread with such rapidity as to alarm the authorities. The residents of Worrington are so wrought up on the subject of vaccination that the doctors are working day and night inoculating them. The disease has broken out seriously at Manchester, Liverpool, St. Helens, Wigan, Salford, Oldham, Halifax, Rotherham, Barnsley and Bradford. The most serious outbreak has been at Leeds, where all available room in the hospitals is occupied, and many cases are being cared for in private houses. In Leicester, where considerable opposition was made to the compulsory vaccination law, it is amusing to see the frequency with which those who were shrieking most loudly against it, rushing to be inoculated, now that there is immediate danger of contagion. The authorities report that the disease is abating in London.

DIPHThERIA RAGING.

Diphtheria in a most violent form is raging in many parts of the Upper Ottawa country, and the greatest alarm prevails amongst the people. In some cases homes have been abandoned by people fleeing from the scourge. In other instances whole families have been swept away. W. McIntyre, who resides near the infected district is in Ottawa. He describes things as in a truly melancholy condition. All schools in the townships of Hagarty, Raglan, Brudenel and Sebastopol are closed up, as more than half the pupils are down with the disease, and parents are afraid to send their other children for fear of catching the infection. In all lumber camps about the disease is raging and death is mowing down the men. As soon as the disease proves fatal the victims are wrapped in the blankets on which they breathed their last and buried without coffins or any attempt at religious exercises. The provincial health department have two of the best medical experts investigating the cause, but so far have been unable to locate it, or suggest anything for its suppression. People living in the roads that lead to the infected district will not open their doors to a stranger, lest he should have the disease. Many men flying from the shanties infected with disease have sickened with the disease on the way and died by the roadside, people being to much afraid to afford them succor lest they too should be stricken.

GENERAL NEWS.

A thick seam of clay which lies just above the coal at the Wellington collieries is being worked and sent to Victoria.

The Cochrane Ranch Co. are shipping dressed beef from their ranch near Macleod, Alberta, to Montreal and other eastern points.

Immigration agents report that considerable sums of money are being sent to families and friends in the old country to enable them to come to Manitoba.

Money is much cheaper to the farmers in this country than in the adjoining northwestern states of the union. The rate of interest in Manitoba is fully 2 per cent. lower than in Dakota.

A prominent official of the Germania Life Insurance Company of New York is about to visit British Columbia with a view to real estate investments, the recent augmentations of its business in the province fully justifying the departure.

W. T. Mallory, who farms near Carmen, Manitoba, threshed this season over 300 bushels of choice timothy seed off 30 acres. This goes to show that timothy can be successfully raised in Manitoba, notwithstanding some people argue to the contrary.

The establishment of creameries in British Columbia at such places as Chilliwack, Langley, the Delta, Duncan's and other points is advocated by the Commonwealth, which thinks much of the butter now imported could be probably made in the province.

Two well-known mining prospectors have arrived at Revelstoke from Big Bend with most gratifying news concerning the placer mines there, as well as a quantity of coarse gold and nuggets to back up their statements. Four men at the Concolation mine took out $250 worth in two shifts. At another claim every shovelful of dirt panned out $45.

The new Driard hotel of Victoria, which has just been opened for guests, is without doubt the finest building in the city. The cost of the hotel, with furniture, is about $275,000, and it contains 225 rooms, while accommodation can be provided for over 300 guests. The dining saloon can seat 350 persons, and the restaurant, drawing-rooms, billiard-rooms, and the whole hotel are replete with modern improvements.

Considerable machinery has arrived at Rat Portage recently for Lake of the Woods mines. Mr. J. F. Caldwell got in two carloads for the Sultan mine, at which the buildings are all completed, and it is expected the machinery will all be placed in position and in running order by the end of this month. Upton and Barnes have also imported a carload of machinery to commence development on mining properties they purchased recently.

Mr. Alex. Smith, Manitoba government immigration agent at Winnipeg, reports that the following number of settlers and carloads of stock and effects arrived in the province during October. By C. P. R., via Fort Williams—725 settlers and 20 cars of settlers' effects; via Greta—25 settlers. A total of 754 settlers and 20 cars of effects. During the month the arrivals from Great Britain and Europe were light, the majority of those coming being from the eastern provinces.
